Instructions to Authors

- The structure of the paper should be as follows: Titlepage: Title of the paper, Names of the authors preceded by the initials of first and if applicable middle names, Institute, Clinics, University and Town, Abstract*, Key words, List of Abbreviations (only uncommon abbreviations), Contents: Short Introduction, Material, Methods and Statistics, Results, Discussion, References, Address of the corresponding author with telephone and fax number and Email. Tables and Figure legends should be inserted at the end of the paper.

* We point to the importance of the Abstract for the publication in PubMed (MEDLINE).

A division of the abstract into the following paragraphs is recommended: Objective, Methods, Results, Conclusions.

- Quotations of references in the text should primarily be from journals indexed in PubMed which have proven their significance. There are two forms of citation, either numerically [1] or by name (Breuckmann et al. 2005).
- In the list of references contributions must be in alphabetical order according to the names of the authors if the authors are cited by name in the text.

By numerical citations in the text the numbering should begin with [1] and follow ascending order. The list of references should be in numerical order.

References should follow the form of presentation used in PubMed:

Breuckmann F, Neumann T, Kondratieva J, Wieneke H, Ross B, Nassenstein K, Barkhausen J, Kreuter A, Brockmeyer N, Erbel R. Dilated cardiomyopathy in two adult human immunodeficiency positive (HIV+) patients possibly related to highly active antiretroviral therapy (HAART). Eur J Med Res. 2005 Sep 12; 10(9): 395-9.
